

All Guns To Be Silenced Today

Surrender Terms Will be Met Doenitz Tells People of Reich

LONDON, May 8.—(CP)—Grand Admiral Karl Doenitz, Germany's current Fuehrer, announced today that all German guns would be silent by 11 p.m. (3 p.m. MDT) today.

Hitler, succeeded as Fuehrer of the German people, issued an address over the German-controlled Flensburg radio that the German people must lay down their arms in accordance with the unconditional surrender terms he had ordered.

Addressing the German people, Doenitz said:

"Therefore during the night of May 8, all guns will be laid down and the unconditional surrender will be signed."

In slow, deliberate terms he told the German people: "Never again will we be severed from the German state and that 'the party has left the scene.'

Doenitz, addressing the German people, said he ordered the high command to surrender unconditionally on the night of May 6-7 on all fronts.

"On May 8 at 11 p.m. the arms will be silent," he said.

The Fuehrer, he said, that "German soldiers of countless battles now are treading the bitter path to victory and are making the last sacrifice for the life of our women and children and for the future of our nation."

When asked if ever from the favela I look it at my first task to save the life of the German people, he said: "We have given the sacrifice of our nation, of its fighting army, of all men, women and children," he said.

Doenitz declared he did not know whether he would continue at his post and added:

"It is impossible to carry on this struggle. A very difficult path lies before us."

"We must walk it dignified, dignified and courageous. We must work hard."

Doenitz warned the German people that they must "work hard with the occupying authorities" and he urged them to walk the "difficult path" until victory was won. "The children in Europe may one day have a free and secure existence."

The Fuehrer said he had prepared himself "as far as possible to alleviate the fate of the German people" and added: "up to now it will be possible. I do not know."

His speech, slowly and somberly delivered, was considered with the respect that the "German people and the death must remain united."

Broaden Provisions Service Grants Act

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—Broadening of the provisions of the Service Grants Act to permit payment of gratuities to the service estate of a deceased soldier has been announced by defence headquarters.

Previous payment of gratuities could only be made to or on behalf of a dependent of a soldier whose death occurred while on active service or who died in the service, but before his grant had been paid to him in full.

Recent amendment to the war service gratuity regulations provides that where no dependent qualifies as a dependent, the gratuity will be paid to the estate of the deceased which is distributed in case for all three services by the estates branch of the defence department.

Superforts Blast Jap Home Islands

GUAM, May 8.—(AP)—Nearly 50 American Superforts, bombing through overcast with minor instrument difficulties, made the 18th strike against Kyushu Island today. Results were unobserved as planes were obscured by clouds. The 18th strike was V-E Day—vanded in the tidal wave of rejoicing.

FIREFWORKS AND BANDS

Official in cities and towns and villages participated in the programs they had long had ready for this day. Fireworks, bands, parades and masses of people realization of their purpose in the wake of the spontaneous eruptions of the day.

In Central Australia some bushmen believe they can help perpetuate themselves by anointing themselves with the fat of the kangaroo.

Hun Surrender Changes Issue Dominion Vote

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—Unconditional surrender of Germany expected in political circles here to affect the issues on which the forthcoming Dominion general election campaign will be based.

Foreign-speaking members of parliament expressed the view during the last sitting that conscription would be suspended in Quebec even after the war in Europe was over, but English-speaking Liberals were convinced that it was far from a major issue in the rest of Canada as fighting stopped in Europe.

VIEW OF LIBERALS—The Social Crediters' members of parliament expressed the view during the last sitting that conscription would be suspended in Quebec even after the war in Europe was over, but English-speaking Liberals were convinced that it was far from a major issue in the rest of Canada as fighting stopped in Europe.

PRIME MINISTER—Prime Minister Mackenzie King, Progressive Conservative national leader, and M. J. Caldwell, CCF leader, have to make their opening speeches of the campaign and when they do, their views will be expected to state the new objective and there are indications that the opposition will criticize the government's plan to recruit volunteers and to recruit volunteers. This might well keep the conscription issue an important one.

INCORPORATION TO CCF

CCF leaders, whose speeches have criticized the government's post-war plans, will be encouraged by the surrender of Germany.

They have often stated that their policies had a greater appeal in the matter of post-war reconstruction than the actual conduct of hostilities.

The chances of the Social Credit candidates may not be as good as the Liberals', but the important plank in their platform is monetary reform. They can be expected to demand a moratorium on debts and a long way for the war to go a long way in adopting financial practices they advocated.

Riots in Halifax Mark Celebration

OTTAWA, May 8.—(CP)—The rioting of VE Day celebrators last night wrecked two of the city's largest liquor stores, burned a police patrol wagon and a street car, and damaged at least 20 other street cars in one of the wildest, maddest nights this city has seen.

There was no definite idea of the damage done last night, but it will run into thousands of dollars.

"They weren't drinking here, but they were here to have a good time," said a policeman.

"They were here to have a good time, but they were here to have a good time," said a policeman.

The police wagon was on its way to answer a radio call when it was stopped by a group of sailors. They turned the car over on its side, righted it again, then hopped it over again and again, until the side body was badly bruised in the frays, and had to scramble to get it back on the road.

Police said woodwork was ripped from a stalled street car near the corner of King and Queen.

Nazi Communication System Said Cause of Announcement Delay

NEW YORK, May 8.—BBC said last night that official delay in releasing the news of the surrender of Germany to the world was caused by the Nazi communication system.

The BBC said the news was sent to Europe by the slow German military communication system.

It was reported that the German communication system was not able to receive messages from Britain.

CORNS Lifted Out

STOCKHOLM, May 8.—(AP)—The new British Ambassador to day a British fleet was at anchor 10 miles from Oslo. An armada of British ships had been in the night and returned to Sweden today in route to telephone one of the first eyewitness reports of the fleet's arrival.

The Music Festival

All this week young Edmonton and district musicians and concertgoers will be putting their talents against one another in the annual Music Festival at McDevitt United Church and the Masonic Temple. The success of the district and provincial festivals
throughout the years is ample testimony
to that music is a great art and encourages young Canadians to study assiduously and have given them higher marks at which to aim in their artistic and cultural development. The large number of entries this year—about 400—shows the keen interest of young people who take advantage of the opportunities offered from such authorities as Arthur Benjamin
and Mrs. Florence Aymond.

Who Is to Make Good?

France, Belgium, Luxembourg, Holland, Yugoslavia and Greece are supporting Russia at San Francisco in the demand
the German and Italian prisoners-of-war be used to rebuild the cities in those countries. The supporting countries explain that they are not asking for slave labor, but that volunteer workers from among the enemy prisoners be paid wages in Germany.

The suggestion of "slave labor" does not or should not, enter into the proposition.
German troops caused the damage, and Germany should do the repair work and pay for it. If the Reich prefers to substitute that for the work of the enemy, it is the injured countries which could suffer nothing by conceding that privilege. Whatever wages the builders get should come out of German pockets.

It is a harsh matter of punishing Germany in this way for having made war on its neighbors. The question is whether Germany's victims are to have to make good the damage, or the offender do the same. The question is whether it is fair to have to toil to restore the ruined cities and pay the wages of the workers and the cost of materials. The attacker, not the attacked, is the party to do the job and foot the bill.

V

Not So Noisy

Those who are old enough to remember the "Y" day in 1915 must have noticed that the news came through yesterday that Germany's military, naval and air forces had surrendered and the war in Europe was over.
There was no doubt the genuine and genuine news with which the news was received, but the demonstration was far less boisterous.

In part, perhaps because the enemy forces had been surrendered piecemeal for a week and the entire force, in part.
part also because the war in the other theatres had yet to begin. But, beyond any doubt, in many minds was the memory that the "war to end war" hadn't done its job, and the people less disposed to unrestrained jubilation.

These probably were the main reasons
why Edmonton made less noise than it had made twenty-six and a half years before.

It is worth noting, however, that because the end came differently this time the results are more likely to be permanent.
All Germany has felt and seen the strength of the Allies, and the people sailing on British ships did so at their own peril. This is taken as showing that it was known here that the war had been planned.

There are relatives and friends will need to exercise patience. They may recall that one of the mistakes made in winding up World War I was that the Allies forced Germany to quickly from the German man scene. That mistake should not be repeated, and isn't likely to be.

It is true that Goebels shot himself, or was shot by somebody else, the cleverest man in the whole Nazi hierarchy is dead. Goebels could tell a story over the radio that sounded half-convincing even when the hearer knew he was lying from start to finish. V

Signora Mussolini, wife of Benito, was captured in Italy as a prisoner and was tried to go to Switzerland. She should spend any further punishment. That should give her any association with Il Duce all the rest of her days will be enough penalty; and so far as known she wasn't responsible for her crimes. V

Maybe he didn't mean anything more than he said, but Tokyo will take more than a casual notice of Marshal Stalin's absence
to "open up" the Japanese and Dumb Music Festival at McDevitt United Church and the Masonic Temple. The success of the district and provincial festivals
throughout the years is ample testimony
to that music is a great art and en-

and Mrs. Florence Aymond.

When Col.-Gen. Blaskowitz turned up at his headquarters to surrender the 120,- 000 Nazi troops in Holland and the Friesland islands, Gen. Fouliques laid down the law among other things that all German military personnel must be sent to the United States as prisoners and no SS troopers escape from the area or go into hiding. The Col.-Gen., knowing his gunmen, didn't like that ruling, but had to agree. His honesty showed the wisdom of the order, as his final consent showed the helplessness of his position.

There was excitement in the cities,

of excitement.

There was a spontaneous outburst of cheering and shouting and dancing and feasting everywhere.

Everyone crowded into the streets.

Government Confident Dominion Will Continue Full Employment

The federal government is "confident that the Dominion will stay prosperous and there will be maximum employment for all sections of the community," said Hon. James A. MacKinnon, minister of trade and commerce, said in an interview with the Canadian Pensioners' Society in the IOOF Hall Monday night.

Mr. MacKinnon said that the Canadian government has passed the most comprehensive system of social security legislation in the history of the Dominion.

HEAD OF OTHERS

There are family allowances, provisions for war veterans in advance of their pensions, old age pensions, insurance and many other measures aimed at providing Canadians with a social security legislation in the history of the Dominion.

"We have now reached the end of the European war. This is not a great time to be in a depressive year. You can look back upon the battles of the past, the unity which was shown in the cause of trial and the conservation to a common purpose which alone made victory possible."

All these qualities have been at the service of the Canadian government in the past two years. We must see to it that these same high qualities of unit and conservation continue to remain with us in the days of peace," the minister said.

A constitutional conference has been summoned by the government because they are in reality 10 governments in Canada instead of one as at present.

When the federal government of Canada finally passed the old age pension bill, the provinces argued in the house that the government had no power to do so legislatively.

DESPITE OPPOSITION

Despite opposition the bill was passed as the government was determined to pass the old age pension bill.

"For one hope that before long, some uniform control in the administration of old age pensions will be established, because any plan of social security worthy of the name must be based on a common plan of old age pensions."

Arnold Taylor and A. L. Smith, both of the Canadian Civil Service, were present at the meeting.

First vice-president is Robert J. Keay of Calgary; Maj. G. V. G. McLean, of Kitchener, second vice-president.

Arnold Taylor and A. L. Smith, both of the Canadian Civil Service, were present at the meeting.

"This means the state should provide a pension which is adequate for the individual's basic needs, even when he has no other resources."

The federal government has recently taken action to bring reforms in old age pensions.

PREPARED TO RECOMMEND

"The government at Ottawa is prepared to recommend a system of old age pensions on a national scale on a more generous basis than that at present would follow in all parts of the Dominion."

This will require not only an increase in the scale of pensions but a reduction in the age at which the pension will be paid.

The plan would call for a reduction of the age of eligibility from 70 to 65.

President E. C. Fisher of the Old Age Pensioners' Society, was in the chair.

Hon. Solon Low Opens Campaign

HUMBOLDT, Sask., May 8.—(CP)—Hon. Solon Low, National Social Credit leader, said in addressing a luncheon club here last night that "A lay down of friendship that comes up for aid only for the purpose of voting once every four years" can never be expected to curb those who seek control of Canada.

"They must contend that we must adopt the Russian system in Canada for that we are attempting to build a truly Canadian tradition founded on a new democratic order in which the Christian concern is applied," said Mr. Low, who was on his federal general election speaking tour in Saskatchewan.

The convention chose Charles Schenck of Brant as candidate to contest the Humboldt federal constituency.

Mr. Low said that Social Creditors sought economic security for Canadian with full freedom. People must be free to choose their own tool over their politicians. Parties other than Social Credit represented "so-called debtors" who spoke in terms of "the people" but in reality control, compulsory unemployment, insurance, taxes, debt registration and restrained production."

SHAEF Lifts Ban On AP Dispatches

PARIS, May 8.—(AP)—A supreme headquarters order suspending filing foreign news by The Associated Press in the European theatre was lifted last night except as it applied to Edward Kennedy, 39-year-old chief of the AP's western front staff, who sent the Reims dispatch telling of Germany's unconditional surrender. The earlier order of supreme headquarters public relations division had halted all AP filing from here for several hours.

HE SAID IT WOULD HAPPEN—Prime Minister Winston Churchill, who, even in the darkest days of 1940 when Britain stood alone against the undefeated German war machine, never wavered in his faith that the Nazis would suffer defeat.

AP Man Scores Greatest "Beat"

By J. ANDERSON

NEW YORK, May 8.—(CP)—Mild-mannered, soft-spoken Edward Kennedy, 39-year-old chief of the Associated Press foreign staff in Europe, scored yesterday what probably will be recorded as the greatest newsman's "beat" in history. He beat Prime Minister Churchill in London, Premier Stalin in Moscow, President Truman in Washington.

He reported the unconditional surrender of Germany's remaining forces from the field, signalling the end—aside from isolated actions against die-hard Nazis in southern Europe—of the European phase of history's greatest conflict.

Kennedy's first "flash" was received in New York at 7:36 a.m. MDT. It said: "Germany surrendered unconditionally to the Allies and Russia."

Reports showed that other AP men were hard at work in the sun-dappled hours before the surrender one hour after clearance of Kennedy's dispatch . . . two hours . . . three hours . . . a day.

London Celebrates Victory As Throngs Jam Main Streets

By FRANK LOWE

LONDON, May 8.—(CP)—The European war was over for London last night. It was the Coronation, the Jubilee, the Wembley Cup final and every other gathering rolled into one.

Street between Piccadilly Circus and Leicester Square was packed. It took a man three-quarters of an hour to push the 150 yards from the boarded-up statue of Eros in Piccadilly Circus to Leicester Square.

Earlier in the day children lined the streets, waving tiny flags. One tot wore a white satin victory suit embellished with names of the Allies. Another objected to the fact that Marshal Stalin's name was written on the back of his pants.

The news of London in jubilation and the crowd outside by the thousands. Plates roared overhead. The Guards marched past the palace in regulation formation.

But throughout the afternoon, many millions of solemn workers stayed on their jobs and some did not even realize the news until nearly nightfall.

Evening brought a brief lift to the day—under the big rain. Victory champagne was brought up from the deep cellars and long-horned whisky and gin came out, hiding their flavor by the barrelful.

Polish States Will Be Settled

SAN FRANCISCO, May 8.—(CP)

Russia said in a press interview yesterday that he had "no doubt that the Polish question will be settled successfully." M. Molotov reminded his listeners that the Yugoslav question, although they were not able to do so at once, would be settled "as soon as possible."

But throughout the afternoon, many millions of solemn workers stayed on their jobs and some did not even realize the news until nearly nightfall.

Evening brought a brief lift to the day—under the big rain. Victory champagne was brought up from the deep cellars and long-horned whisky and gin came out, hiding their flavor by the barrelful.

"Thank God FOR THE SUNRISE"

GERMANY IS BEATEN! This conquest heralds the approaching end of the long night of suffering and tribulation. On the horizon gleams the sunrise of the day of total victory.

For this great blessing, let us thank God Who has so abundantly answered our prayer. Let us thank those men and women who have fought so long and well—especially those who have passed to where they may hear immortal songs of gratitude for their supreme sacrifice in the cause of Freedom. Finally, let us thank our fellow-workers who are maintaining the unceasing flow of goods and materials needed by our fighting forces.

In this day of thankfulness let us remember that Peace is not yet ours to enjoy! We still have enemies who must be overthrown. We still have much to do—for Victory must be final and complete! To this end we MUST continue, without ceasing, to pray, to work, to produce, to lend, to give.

Only when we have completely conquered all those who now try to enslave the souls of men—then, and then only, may we lay down our weapons, pause in our labours and rejoice in our complete deliverance.
